Polit Paright A Nool 83.

APPENDIX

OT

JOHN BULL

Still

In His SENSES:

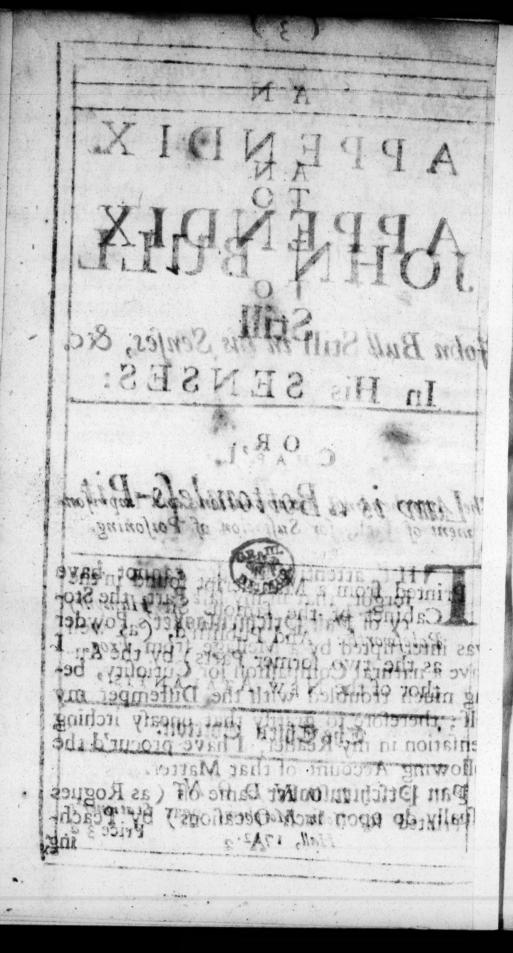

OR,

Law is a Bottomless-Pit.

Printed from a Manuscript found in the Cabinet of the famous Sir Humphry Polesworth: And Publish'd, (as well as the two former Parts) by the Author of the New ATALANTIS.

The Third Stition.

LONDON,
Printed for John Morphew, near Stationer'sHall, 1712. Price 3 d.

the poor Fellow, that he was known to bear a most invetering Spinish the pld Conwas indeed it suppen'd unformantely for

APPENDIX

T O

John Bull Still in his Senses, &c.

CHAP. L

The Apprehending, Examination, and Imprisonament of Jack, for Suspicion of Poisoning.

HE attentive Reader cannot have forgot, that in my last Part, the Story of Pan Ptschirnsoker's Powder was interrupted by a Message from Frog. I have a natural Compassion for Curiosity, being much troubled with the Distemper my self; therefore to gratify that uneasy itching Sensation in my Reader, I have procur'd the sollowing Account of that Matter.

Pan Ptichirnsooker came off (as Rogues usually do upon such Occasions) by Peach-

A 2

ing

ing his Pautier, and being extremely forward to bring him to the Gallows; Jack was lace dus'd as the Contriver of all the Roquety. And indeed it happen'd unfortunately for the poor Fellow, that he was known to bear a most inveterate Spight against the old Gentlewoman, and consequently, that never any ill Accident happen'd to her, but he was fuspecied to be at the bottom of it. If she prick'd her Finger, Jack, to be fure, laid the Pin in the way: If some Noise in the Street disturb'd her Rest, who could it be but Jack in fome of his nocturnal Rambles of If a Servant run away, Jack had debauch'd him: every idle Tittle-tattle that went about, Jack was always suspected for the Author of it: However, all was nothing to this last Affair of the temperating, moderating Powder. The Hue and Cry went after Jack, to Apprehend him, dead or alive, wherever he could be found. The Constables look'd out for him in all his usual Haunts; but, to no purpose, Where d'ye think did they find him at laft? Et'n smoaking his Pipe very quietly, at his Brother Martin's; from whence he was carry'd, with a vast Mob at his Heels, before the Worshipful Mr. Justice Overdo. Several. of his Neighbours made Oath, That of late, the Prisoner had been observ'd to lead a very diffolute Life, renouncing ev'n his usual Hypocrify, and Pretences to Sobriety: That he frequenced Taverns and Earing-Houses, that and and had been writen guildy of Drunkenners and Glattony at My Lord Mayor's Pable; That he had been feen in the Company of Lewds Women: That he had transferr'd his afind religious Care of the engros'd Copy of his Father's Will, to Bank Bills, Orders for Tallies, and Debentures: Thefe he now affirm'd, with more literal Truth, to 133 be Meat, Drink, and Cloth, the Phito- Male of fophers Stone, and the Universal Medi- the Tub. cine . That he was fo far from shewing his customary Reverence to the Will, that he kept company with those that call'd his Fall ther a cheating Rogue, and his Will a Forgery. That he not only fat quietly and heard his Father rail'd at, but often chim'd in with the Discourse, and hugg'd the Authors as his Bosom Friends: 4 That all 1940 + Tale of instead of asking for Blows, at the Corners of the Streets, he now beflow'd them as plentifully as he begg'd them before: In short, That he was grown a meer Rake; and, had nothing left in him of old Jack, except his Spight to John Bull's Mother.

((5))

rd

Cs

y.

10 r

ny

u-

16

10 et ck

+

1:

ck t:

ir

ie

d.

be

m

is

Fre al

e, eal

t

s,

Another Witness made Oath, That Jack had been overheard bragging of a Trick he had found out to manage the old formal Jade, as he us'd to call her. Dann this numb'd Skull of mine (quoth he) that I could not light on it sooner. As long as I go in this cagged tatter'd Coat, I am so well known, that that I am hunted away from the old Weman's Door by every barking Curr about the House, they bid me Defiance; there's no doing Mischief as an open Enemy, I must find some way or another of getting within Doors, and then I shall have better Opportunities of playing my Pranks, besides the Benefit of good keeping.

Two Witnesses Swore, that several Years ago, there came to their Mistris's Door, a young Fellow in a tatter'd Coat, that went by the Name of Timothy Trim, whom they did in their Conscience believe to be the did in their Conscience believe to be the very Prisoner, resembling him in Shape, Stature, and the Features of his Countenance; that the said Timothy Trim being taken into the Family, clap'd their Mistris's Livery over his own tatter'd Coat; that the faid Timethy was extremely officious about their Mistris's Person, endeavouring by Flattery and Tale bearing, to set her against the rest of the Servants; no Body was fo ready to fetch any thing that was wanted, or reach what was drop'd; that he us'd to shove and elbow his Fellow-Servants to get near his Miltress, especially when Mony was a paying or receiving, then he was never out of the way; that he was extremely diligent about every Bodies Business but his own; that the faid Timothy, while he was in the Family, us d to be playing Roguish Tricks; when his Miffrets's back was turn'd he would

Builli

that. I am him follout his Tongue, make Mouths, and laugh at her, walking behind her like a Harlequin, ridiculing her Motions and Gostures; if his Miftreis look'd about, he put on a grave, demure Countenance, as he had been in à fit of Devotion; that he us'd often to trip up Stairs fo fmoothly that you could not hear him tread, and put all things out of Order; that he would pinch the Children and Servants, when he met them in the dark. chard, that he left the Print of his Fores fingers and his Thumb in black and blue and then flink into a corner, as if no Body had done it: Out of the same malicious Design. he us'd to lay Chairs and Joint-stools in their way, that they might break their Nofes by falling over them. The more young and uni experienc'd, he us'd to teach to talk Saucily and call Names: During his stay in the Pamily there was much Plate misling; that her ing catch'd with a couple of Silver Spoons in his Pocket, with their Handles wrench'd off, he faid, he was only going to carry them to the Goldsmiths to be mended; that the faid Timothy was hated by all the honest Servants. for his ill-condition'd, splenetick Tricks, but especially for his slanderous Tongue; traditcing them to their Mistress, as Drunkards, Thieves and Whore-masters; that the said Tiworky, by lying Stories, us'd to fet all the Family. together by the Bars, taking delight to make them Fight and Quarrel; particularly one Day fitting

a-

JUL

nis N

ier Be

)ehe

1

U£

ex be

94

A.

id

T.

T

ch

br

HS

y<sub>ō</sub>

JE

10

901

(8)

fining at Table, he spoke Words to this Ef. feet I am of Opinion (quoth he) That little silhort Fellows, such as we are, have better Hearts. and could beat the tall Fellows y s wish it came to a fair Trial, I believe, thete flong Fellows, as fightly as they are, should find their Jackets well thwack'd. A parcel of tall Fellows, who thought themselves af-fronted by this Discourse, took up the Quarelationd to't they went, the tall Men end the low Men, which continues Hill a Faction in the Family to the great Disorder of our Mistres's Affairs: That the said Timothy bar-ried this Frolick so far, that he proposed to his Mistress, that she should entertain no Servant that was above four Foot feven Inches high, and for that Purpose had prepared a Gage, by which they were to be meafulld? That the good old Gentlewoman was mor fo finiple as to go into his Projects, the began s is an odd fort of a Fellow, methinks he makes a strange Figure with that ragged, Charter'd Coat, appearing under his Divery, sean't he go spruce and clean, like the rest of the Servants? The Fellow has a Roguish Leer with Him, which T don't like by any s means; befides, he has fuel a twang in his Discourse, and an ungraceful way of speak-ing through the Nose, that one can hardly conderstand him; I wish the Fellow be not V Tainted with fome bad Difeate. The Witneffes ((95)

nesses farther made Oath, That the said Timothy lay out a Nights, and went abroad often at unseasonable Hours; that it was credibly reported, he did Business in another Family; that he pretended to have a squeamish Stomach, and could not eat at Table with the rest of the Servants, the this was but a pretence to provide some nice Bit for himself; that he resus'd to Dine upon Salt-sish, only to have an opportunity to eat a Calve's Head (his Favourite Dish) in private; that for all his tender Stomach, when he was got by himself, he would devour Capons, Turkeys and Sirloins of Beef, like a Cormorant.

Two other Witnesses gave the following Evidence, That in his officious Attendance upon his Mistress, he had try'd to slip in a Powder into her Drink, and that once he was catch'd endeavouring to stiffe her with a Pillow as she was a sleep; that he and Ptschirnsoker were often in close Conference, and that they us'd to drink together at the Rose, where it seems he was well enough known by the true Name of Jack.

创.

tle

ter

M

ele

ild

del

af-

ial

HA

oh

ur

alfi

to er-

ies

93

To

an d)

he

30 eft

n

by ils

HY

Ot

14-

Tes

The Prisoner had little to say in his Defence; he endeavour'd to prove himself Alibi; so that the Trial turn'd upon this single Question, whether the said Timothy Trim and Jack, were the same Person? which was prov'd by such plain Tokens, and particularly by a Mole under the lest Pap, that there (10P))

there was no withstanding the Evidence; therefore the Worshipful Mr. Justice com. mitteck him, in order to his Tryal and the standard of the control of the Yoursch, and sould not car at Table with

e

SI

ł

1

I

t

e

ł

How Jack's Friends came to visit him in Prison, and what Advice they gave him.

ACK hitherto had pass'd in the World for a poor, fimple, well-meaning, halfwitted, crack'd-brain'd Fellow, People were strangely surprized to find him in such a Roguery; that he should disguise himself under a false Name, hire himself out for a Servant to an old Gentlewoman, only for an opportunity to Poison her. They said, That it was more Generous to profess open Enmity, than, under a profound Dissimulation, to be guilty of fuch a foundalous Breach of Trust, and of the sacred Rights of Hospitality. In fhort, the Action was univerfally Condemn'd by his best Friends; they told him in plain terms, That this was come as a Judgment upon him, for his loofe Life, his Gluttony, Drunkenness and Avarice, laying aside his Father's Will in an old mouldy Trunk, and turning Stock-jobber, News monger, and Busie-body, meddling with other Peoples Affairs, shaking off his old serious Friends, and keeping Company with Buffcons and PickPick-pockets, his Father's sworn Enemies; That he had best throw himself upon the Mercy of the Court, Repent, and change his Manners. To say truth, Jack heard these Discourses with some Compunction; however he resolv'd to try what his new Acquaintance would do for him: They sent Habakkuk Slyboats, who deliver'd him the following Message, as the peremptory Commands of his trusty Companions.

m.

on,

rld

ilf-

ere

1 a

felf

r a

an

hat

En-

on,

ot

ta-

ally

old sa

his

ing

nk,

er,

ds,

nd k-

ad

Habakkuk. Dear Jack, I am forry for thy Missortune; Matters have not been carried on with due Secrecy; however, we must make the best of a bad Bargain: Thou art in the utmost Jeopardy, that's certain; Hang, Draw and Quarter, are the gentlest things they talk of. However, thy faithful Friends, ever watchful for thy Security, bid me tellthee, That they have one infallible Expedient left to fave thy Life: Thou must know, we have got into some Understanding with the Enemy, by the means of Don Diego Dismallo; he assures us there is no Mercy for thee, and that there is only one way left to Escape; it is indeed fomewhat out of the common-Road, however, be affur'd, it is the refult of most mature Deliberation.

Jack. Prithee tell me quickly, for my Heart is funk down into the very bottom of my Belly.

Hab. It is the unanimous Opinion of your Friends, that you make as if you hang'd your felf; that they will give it out that you are quite dead, and convey your Body but of Prison in a Beir; and that John Bull, being busied with his Law-Suit, will not enquite further into the matter.

Jack. How d'ye mean, make as if I had hang'd my felf?

felf up in a true genuine Rope, that there may appear no Trick in it, and leave the rest to your Friends.

Jack. Truly this is a matter of some Concern; and my Friends, I hope, won't take it ill, if I enquire a little into the means by which they intend to deliver me: A Rope, and a Noose, are no jesting Matters!

Hab. Why so mistrustful? hast thou ever sound us salse to thee? I tell thee, there is one ready to cut thee down.

Jack. May I prefume to ask who it is that is entrusted with that important Office?

Hab. Is there no end of thy How's and thy Why's? that's a Socret.

Jack. A Secret, perhaps, that I may be fafely trusted with, for I am not like to tell it again. I tell you plainly, it is no strange thing for a Man, before he hangs himself up, to enquire who is to cut him down.

Hab. Thou suspicious Creature! if thou must needs know it, I tell thee it is Sir Roger; he has been in Tears ever fince thy Missortune. Don Diego and we have laid it so, that he

(13)

he is to be in the next Room, and before the Rope is well about thy Neck, rest satisfied, he will break in, and cut thee down: Fear not, old Boy; we'll do't, I'll warrant thee.

Jack. So I must hang my self up, upon hopes that Sir Roger will cut me down, and all this upon the Credit of Don Diego: A fine Stratagem indeed to save my Life, that depends upon Hanging, Don Diego, and Sir Roger!

Hab. I tell thee there is a Mystery in all this, my Friend, a piece of profound Policy; if thou knew what good this will do to the Common Cause, thy Heart would leap for Joy: I'm sure thou would not delay the Experiment one moment.

Jack. This is to the Tune of All for the better. What's your Cause to me, when I am hang'd?

are

t of

ing

had our nay

to

onake

by

ope,

ver

one

hat

and be

tell

nge

up,

hou

er.;

forhat

he

Hab. Refractory Mortal! If thou wilt not trust thy Friends, take what sollows; know assuredly, before next sull Moon, that thou wilt be hung up in Chains, or thy Quarters perching upon the most conspicuous Places of the Kingdom. Nay, I don't believe they will be contented with Hanging, they talk of Empaling, or breaking on the Wheel; and thou chusest that, before a gentle suspending of thy self, for one Minute. Hanging is not so painful a thing as thou imagines. I have spoke with several that have undergone it, they all agree it is no manner of uncaliness; because thou take good notice of the Symp. toms, the Relation will be curious; it is but a kick or two with thy Heels, and a wry Mouth or so: Sir Roger will be with thee in the twinkling of an Eye.

Jack. But what if Sir Roger should not come? will my Friends be there to Succour Hab. Doubt it not; I will provide every thing against to Morrow Morning, do thou keep thy own Secret, say nothing: I tell thee, it is absolutely necessary for the Common Good, that thou shouldst go through this Operation.

CHAP. HI.

How Jack hang'd himself up by the Perswasion of his Friends, who broke their Word, and test his Neck in the Noose.

TACK was a profess'd Enemy to Implicit Faith, and yet I dare say, it was never more strongly exerted, nor more basely abused, than upon this occasion. He was now, with his old Friends, in the state of a poor disbanded Officer after a Peace; or rather a wounded Soldier after a Battle; like an old Favourite of a cunning Minister after the Jobb is over; or a decay'd Beauty to a cloy'd Lover in quest

(15) efs; quetoofinew Game; or like an hundred fuch mpthings that one ides every Days There were but new Intrigues, new Views, hew Projects on wry foot y fack's Life was the Purchase of Diegos e in Friendship, much igood may it do thom The Interest of Horse and Sir William Cnarty, not which was now more at Heart, made this our Operation upon poor Jack absolutely necesfary Wou may reality guess that his Rest that ery Night was but small, and much disturb'd; nou however the remaining part of his Time he tell did not employ (as his Cultom was former-)mly) in Prayer, Meditacion, or finging a double this Verse of a Psalm, but amused himself with disposing of his Bank-Stock; many a Doubt, many a Qualm, overspread his clouded Imagination. 'Must I then (quoth he) hang up my own personal, natural, individual Self, with these two Hands! Durus Sermo! What if I should be cur down, as my and Friends tell me? There is something Infamous in the very Attempt; the World will conclude I had a guilty Conscience icit Is it possible that good Man, Sir Roger, can ver have so much pity upon an unfortunate ed, Scoundrel, that has perfecuted him fo many ith Years? No, it cannot be: I don't love Fandvours that pass through Don Diego's Hands. led On the other fide, my Blood chills about ite my Heart, at the thought of these Rogues, with their bloody Hands grabbling in my

Guts, and pulling out my very Entrails:

Hang

er; 10

est

Hang it, for once I'll truft my Friends? So Fack refolv'd, but he had done more wife. ly, to have put himself upon the Tryal of his Country, made his Defence in Form; many things happen between the Cup and the Lip, Witnesses might have been brib'd, Junies manag'd, or Profecution stopld. But so it was. Fack for this time had a fufficient Stock of Implicit Faith, which led him to his Ruin, as the Sequel of the Story Thews: And now the fatal Day was come, in which he was to try this hanging Experiment. His Friends did not fail him at the appointed Hour, to fee it put in practice. Habakkuk brought him a fmooth, strong, tough Rope, made of many a ply of wholesome Scandinavian Hemp, compactly twifted together, with a Noofe that flip'd as glib as a Bird-catcher's Gin. Fack shrunk and grew pale at first fight of it, he handled it, measur'd it, stretch'd it, fix'd a it against the Iron-bar of the Window to try its strength, but no Familiarity could reconcile him to it. He found fault with the length, the thickness, and the twiff, nay, the very colour did not please him. 'Will nothing less than Hanging ferve (quoth b Jack)? 'Won't my Enemies take Bail for my good Behaviour? Will they accept of a Fine, or be facisfied with the Pillory and Impri- fe fonment, a good round Whipping, or Burn- F ing in the Cheek? and whoold a min

[47]

Habaktuk. Nothing but your Blood will appeare their Rage; make hafte, else we hall be discover'd: There's nothing like furprifing the Rogues. How they will be disappointed, when they hear that thou hast hast prevented their Revenge, and hang'd thine own felf? office. The Profile of war and Jack. That's true; but what if I should do it in Effigies? Is there never an old Pope, or Pretender, to hang up in my stead? we are not forunlike, but it may pass. It s to mos

Hab. That can never be put upon Sir Hoothood de war bilded a way and lesing

Jack. Are you fure he is in the next Room? Have you provided a very sharp Knife, in mp, case of the worst? The Best Monday when pose Hab. Dost take me for a common Lyar? Gin. Be satisfy'd, no Damage can happen to your fit, Person, your Friends will take care of ker wall de un great Del beration into tant b'xi to Jack. Mayn't I quilt my Rope, it galls my the running Knot, it holds too right, I may be nay, hifled all of a sudden.

Will Hab. Thou haft for many If's and And's; noth prithee dispatch; it might have been over bemy fore this time haid bons land ha ine, Jack But, now I think on't, I would fain pri- fettle some Affairs, for fear of the worst: urn- Have a little Patience.

Hab. There's no having Patience, thou art fuch a faintling, filly Creature.

Fack.

kuk.

SA

ife;

bis

my. ip,

na-

as,

of

as the

try

did

fee

n a

any

Hi Jack. O thou most detestable, abominable Paffine Obedience tridid I ever imagine I fould be become thy Votary, in fo pregnant an Inflance. show willymy Brother Martin laugh at this Story to fee him felf out done in his own I Calling & He bas taken the Dectrine, and lest me the Practice. No sooner had he ur ter'd these Words but like a Man of true Courage, he ty dehe fatal Cord to the Beam, fisted the Noofe, and mounted upon the bot. tom of a Tub, the infide of which the had often Grac'd in his prosperous Days. This Footstool Habakkuk kick'd away, and left poor Teak fwinging, like the Pendulum of Paul's Clocks The fatal Noofe perform dits Office, and with most strict Ligature, fqueez'd the Blood into his Face, 'cilt it affum'd a purple dye: White the poor Man, heav'd from the very bottom of his Belly for Breath, Haba kuk walk'd with great Deliberation into both the apper and lower Room, to acquaint his Friends, who received the News with great Temper, and with Geers and Scoffs inflead of Pity, Jack has Hang'd himself (quoth they!) let us go and fee how the poor Rogue fwings Then they will'd Sin Roger. Sir Rager (quoth Habakkuk) Jack has hang'd himfelf, make hafte and cut him down Sir Roger turn'd first one Ear and then t'other, not understanding what he faid. white Paniencemen

Hab. I tell you fack has hang'd himself up. Sir Roger Who's hang'de will Tack to

Hab.

ble stre Hebridack de le long to be de le beer hanging Day such as seed and the been this fall. But the poor Fellow has hang'd him-and Sir Rogen. Then let him hang. I don't wonun der at it, the Fellow has been mad these true twenty Years. With this he slunk away.

am Then Jack's Friends began to hunch and bot push one another, Why don't you go and cut had the poor Fellow down? Why don't you? and why don't you? Not I (quoth one,) not I This poor (quoth another,) not I (quoth a third,) he may hang 'till Doomsday before I relieve him. aul's Nay it is credibly reported, that they were fice, fo far from fuccouring their poor Friend, in the rple this his dismal Circumstance, that Ptichienthe fooker, and several of his Companions, went taba in and pull'd him by the Legs, and thump'd both him on the Breast. Then they began to rail at this him for the very thing which they had both great advis'd and justify'd before, viz. his getting inhead to the old Gentlewoman's Family, and putting ey on her Livery. The Keeper, who perform'd the last Office, coming up, found Jack swinging, with no Life in him; he took down the haste first brought out the Rope to the Company. This, Gentlemen, is the Rope that hang'd Jack; ding Gentlemen, is the Rope that hang'd Jack; What must be done with it? Upon which up. they order'd it to be laid among the Curiofities of Gresham College, and it is call'd

Hab, 1000 C 2

Fack's

Jack's Rope to this very Day. However to Jack after all, had some small Tokens of B Life in him, but lies at this time past hope of a total Recovery, with his Head hanging on one Shoulder, without Speech or Modition. The Coroners Inquest supposing him Dead, brought him in Non Compos.

et. Ava Ghia P. IV. malih en en 11

2006

The Conference between Don Diego Dismallo, and John Bull.

During the time of the foregoing Trans action, Don Diego was entertaining John Bull.

D. Diego. I hope, Sir, this Day's Proceeding will convince you of the Sincerity of your old Friend Diego, and the Treachery of Sir Roger.

J. Bull. What's the matter now?

D. Diego. You have been endeavouring, for several Years, to have Justice done upon that Rogue Jack; but what through the Remissions of Constables, Justices and pack'd Juries, he has always found the Means to escape.

F. Bull. What then?

Friend, he that would have brought him to ever condign Punishment, or he that has say'd him.

is of By my Perswasion, Jack had hang'd himself, opes if Sir Roger had not cut him down.

ang. J. Bull. Who told you that Sir Roger has him D. Diego. You seem to receive me coldly; methinks my Services desorve a better Re-

J. Bull. Since you value your felf upon Hanging this poor Scoundrel, I tell you, when I have any more Hanging-work, I'll fend for thee; I have fome better Employment for allo, Sir Roger: In the mean time, I desire the poor Fellow may be look'd after. When he first came out of the North-Country into my Farans mily, under the pretended Name of Timothy ning Trim, the Fellow feem'd to mind his Loom and his Spinning-wheel, till some body turn'd eed. his Head; then he grew so pragmatical, that your he took upon him the Government of my f Sir whole Family: I could never order any thing, within or without doors, but he must be always giving his Counsel, forsooth: Never-ring, theless, tell him, I will forgive what is pon past; and if he would mind his Business for Re the future, and not meddle out of his own

D. Diego. Yet all your skilful Physicians fay, that nothing can recover your Mother, best but a piece of Jack's Liver boil'd in her Soup.

ck'd Sphere, he will find that John Bull is not of

COR-

J. Bull.

Bull Those are Quacks My Mostice abhors such Cannibal's Food; she is in perfet Health at present! I would have given many a good Pound to have had her so well fome time ago. There are, indeed, two or three troublesome old Nurses, that because they believe I am tonder-hearted, will never let me have a quiet Nights Rest, with knocking me up: Oh, Sir, your Mother is taken extremely ill! The is fall'n into a fainting Fit the has a great Emptiness, and wants Suffe. nance! This is only to recommend them. felves, for their great Care. John Bull, as fimple as he is, understands a little of a Pullette out of the Merch Country give it ship milys under the gretoned Name of Visabets curion of a september of the first of the fi dates his cooling the postion and the regard out to now and mon to the factor of transferviolists of many a Lighter, so appoint to although mand and fin-ings the factor of transfer to the Health Van to a consequence of the transfer many many security whale is andy: I could bey sporters by thing, the second thing Counted termore and were belower-of The Fift Bearing of the Human Saler

BOOKS Sold by John Mon phew, near Stationers-ha

> HE Examiners for the Year 1711, To which is added, an Explanatory In-Tomoral Sill

An Appendix to John Bull fill in his T Senses, or Lawis a Bottomles Pit. Print de ed from a Manuscript, found in the Cabines of the famous Sir Humphry Polefworth and and publish'd (as well as the Three former of Parts) by the Author of the New Atalantis. Price 3 d.

Some Remarks on the Letters between the L-d T-nd, and Mr. Secretary B-le. In a Letter to the Author of the Remarks on the Barrier-Treaty.

rfee ma. well

0 0

ause :

ever

ock.

iken

Fiel

ıfte.

em.

, as

of a

Five extraordinary Letters supposed to be Writ to Dr. B. y, upon his Edition of Herace, and some other Matters of great Importance.

The Conduct of the Allies, and of the late Ministry, in beginning and carrying on the present War, the 7th Edition. Pr. 6d.

Some Remarks on the Barrier-Treaty, between Her Majesty and the States-General. By the Author of the Conduct of the Allies. To which are added, the faid Barrier-Treaty with the Two separate Articles; part of the Counter-Project; the Sentiments of Pr. Eugene and Count Sinzendorf, upon the faid Treaty; and a Representation of the Englifb Merchants. 2d Edit. Pr. 6 d.

The Picture of a Modern Whig; First and Second Part. By Dr. Davenant. Some Reasons on the Letters between the L-d T-nd and Mr. Sec-tary Balle. In a Letter to the Author of the Remarks on the Barrier-Treaty. Pr. 3 d. 70hn Boll Still in his Senses: Being the Third Part of Law is a Bottomles Pis, Print. ed from a famous Manuscript found in the Cabinet of the famous Sir Humpbrey Polef. worth; and Publish'd (as well as the two former Parish by the Author of the Nonarts) by the Author of the Mora Action Price 2 d. Some Remarks on the Letters between the at T -nd, and Mr. secretary B-le. In Letter to the Author of the Remarks on the Hive extraordinary Latters Supposed to be Mitten his Edition of Ho-Vric to Dr. B ice, and fome other Mitters of great Impor-The Conduct of the Allies, and of the tte Ministry, in beginning and carrying on he prefent War, the 7th Edition. Pr. 6 d. Some Remarks on the Barrier-Treaty, beon Her Majosty and the States Ceneral, ville Author of the Conduct of the Allies. o which are added, the faid Barrier-Treay with the Two feparate Articles ; part of ie Counter-Project: the Sentiments of Pr. grene and Count Singerslove, upon the faid cary : and a Representation of the 522h Merchants, ad udir, Pr. 6 d.

hand the d. the Rolef, two Price Solution Notice Winds y t